

Local Links

CRC's Online Almanac

<http://www.crcmich.org/Almanac/ALMANAC.html>

The CRC Online Almanac is offered as a ready reference to the latest data on state and local economics and government. The Almanac is packed with information on taxes, spending, population, economic data, and interstate comparisons. Drawn from numerous sources, the facts are presented in useful formats. In addition, the Online Almanac provides easy access to other websites where additional information may be found. Compiled by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

Librarian's Index to the Internet: Politics

<http://lii.org/search/file/politics>

National League of Cities

<http://www.nlc.org/home/>

The nation's oldest and largest resource for advocacy and research on issues affecting American cities. Information included: Legislative Action Center, Homeland Security, Congressional City Conferences, and Totally Web Government.